"The PGG Wrightson catalogue certainly got the best of today's sale" was a quote from two exporters as they left the room at the Napier wool sale. A sale that saw the market selling to a very strong tone and concluding again very much in sellers' favour. The last lot today was a pink lambs wool throw in support of the IHC that PGW has been associated with for 42 years this year. Many thanks to the under bidders and thanks to Wool Services International for their winning bid with all the money going directly to the charity.

Regards, Steve Fussell, North Island Auctioneer
